MONTHLY NEWSLETTER | FEBRUARY 2021

From The Whyte House...

If you are like me, sometimes I wonder how God could possibly use someone like me in His bigger plans. In the grander scheme of things I am really not that important. Yes, I'm a Christ follower, Yes, I pastor a church, Yes, I have Bachelor's and Master's degrees but I feel small. I feel like there are people better qualified. More equipped than me to take on God's bigger plan. So I decided to do a series on those people in scripture that may have felt like us. Those people in the background of some of the major stories in scripture. Supporting actors and actresses, if you will, to the main characters of the stories. The series is called People of the Fine Print. Jason kicked this series off last Sunday and we will continue in this series through the month of February. We hope you can bring a friend and join us as we uncover some pretty amazing and what we might consider insignificant people that God used to impact His Kingdom. Don't forget that God has some pretty incredible things lined up for you and the best is yet to come.

We asked you to send us your college student addresses (at college) and the names/addresses below are what we received! :)

We wanted to gather these all in one place for you, the Oakley Christian Church congregation. Please consider mailing a letter, card, words of encouragement, etc. to any of these young adults! This is a simple, yet impactful way to minister to our OCC college kids! Thank you!
